letters said, "they would be shot down like dogs."

For the past two or three weeks these gentlemen, fearing bodily harm, have gone armed with self-acting revolvers. Late on Saturday night Mr. McCready was on his way home from town on horseback, and when opposite a heavily wooded stretch of land near his house two men jumped out upon the road and demanded that he stop. In the darkness Mr. McCready could scarcely see the forms of the men. Touching his horse with the whip, he attempted to get away, but one of the men grabbed the horse by the head and just then a ball from a revolver whizzed past Mr. McCready head. He then opened fire himself and shot promiscuously.

The man who had hold of his borse suddenly let go and said: "I am shot." Mr. McCready then whipped up his horse and escaped. At least a dezen shots were fired. It is believed

The man who had hold of his horse suddenly let go and said: "I am shot." Mr. McCready then whipped up his horse and escaped. At least a dezen shots were fired. It is believed that one of the highwaymen was badly, if not fatally, hurt, as a pool of blood was found in the brush the next morning. The matter has been placed in the hands of a detective agency, and a strong effort will be made to run the martise down.

STRUCK BY A STONE.

The Serious Termination of a Quarrel Between Two Captains.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCE. BELLEVERNON, October 28 .- At 4 o'clock this afternoon Captain Bowell and Captain Abrains were talking in front of Lang's livery stable, when the attention of the bystanders was suddenly attracted by loud talking. Captain Bowell turned to leave Abrams, when Abrams Bowell turned to leave Abrams, when Abrams picked up a large stone, and threw at Bowell striking him on the side of the head. Bowell striking him on the side of the head. Bowell sell forward on his face.

Abrams ran forward, raised Bowell's head and found him unconscious. He laid him down, and by this time Captain Bowell's sister arrived on the scene and said: "Oh, Captain Abrams, what did you do this for?"

Friends carried the Captain home, and three doctors have been working with him constantly, but up to this time (8 P. M.) he has not returned to consciousness. Abrams left on his boat, the Kendall, for Brownsville, apparently the coolest man on the ground.

A BAD YOUNG MAN.

Burglar Barney Shaffer Endeavoring to Escape From Jall.

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 WOOSTER, October 28 .- Young Hartley Shaffer, who recently pleaded guilty to bur-glary, as scheming to make his escape. He is very defiant, and his escapades go to show that if he had not been intercepted in his criminal career, he would have eclipsed the most notorious crooks. Recently he sent word to his relatives to provide him with an iron-eating acid.

He has also written a letter to his sweetheart, Miss Alice Devery, formerly of this place, who is now at Clyde, O., to come and see him and to be sure and bring a revolver, as he will fool some people yet, according to his letter. The young man is only 18 years of age. His mother

The Fatal Mistake Made by a Thirsty West

REPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. HUNTINGTON, W. VA., October 28.-Last night Henry Kelly, a druggist, went behind the prescription case, took down a bottle in the dark, which he supposed contained whisky, and took a big drink. It was tincture of aco-nite, and he died in about two hours.

PEPCIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WOOSTER, October 28 .- After a jury had been empann led and sworn to try William Fisher, indicted for selling liquor to a minor his counsel asked for his discharge on the ground that he had not been arraigned to plead to the indictm on before the jury was sworn, as required by law. Both Fisher and the jury were discharged.

Elizabeth Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Collis P. Huntington, of New York, be-came Princess Hatzfeldt at the chapel of the Roman Catholic Oratory, in South Kensington, this morning, the bride having accepted that religion with her husband. The chapel walls were banked with flowers, and, although the Hunt-ingtons were in mourning, and invitations were limited to immediate friends and relatives, a distinguished gathering was present. The cere-mony was performed by the Rt. Rev.W. L. Patterson, Bishop of Emanus and of St. Mary's, Westminster, assisted by the clergymen of the oratory. Low mass was celebrated, and a semi-choral service given. The bride wore a traveling dress of green velvet trimmed with sable and togue to match also trimmed with sable, Her ornaments were diamond earrings, the gift and togue to match also trimmed with sable. Her ornaments were diamond earrings, the gift of her mother, and diamond shoulder knots, the gift of her mother, and diamond shoulder knots, the gift of her brother. The bridesmaid was Miss Sherrill, of Washington, who has been traveling in Europe with Miss Huntington and Mrs. John Sherwood for Several mouths. Miss Sherrill wore heliotrope velvet with togue to match. The best man was Count Herman Hatzfeldt, the son of the German Ambassador to England, and cousin of the groom.

Those present were the father and mother of the bride, Princess Gabrielle, the groom's mother; Count Hatzfeldt, the German Ambassador, the German's uncle; Lady Herbert of Lea, godmother of the bride; Count and Countess De Althan, sister and brother-in-law of the groom: Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Ismay, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Stephen, Sir William Mackinnon and Mrs. Mackinnon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Guedella, Count and Countess Luizen and Mrs. John Sherwool. Prince Alfred De Hatzfeldt Wildenberg, the father of the groom, was not present; having been taken ill at Wiesbaden on his way to London.

The presents were: Pearl and dismond bracelets and silver-mounted traveling bag from Prince Hatzfeldt; diamond necklace, Princess Hatzfeldt; parure of diamonds, large diamond locket and diamond solitaire and bracelet, Mr. Collis P. Huntington; large diamond locket and diamond solitaire and bracelet, Mr. Collis P. Huntington; diamond simulder knots, Mr. Archer Huntington; Bible and rosary, specially blessed by the Pope, Lady Herbert of Les, godmother of the bride; solid silver instand and tray and antique Roman lamp, Messra, Beryman and Turnbush; Queen's birthday book, Mr. and Mrs. Stephan; loving our of gold on standard of ivory, Mr. Whitelaw Reid: gold repousse tray, copy of antique, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ismay. After the ceremony the party drove to the German embassy, where breakfast was had, after which the bridal couple left for Castle Schonstein, the family seat of the Hatzfeids, on the Rhine, where they will spend the honeymoon.

afternoon and told a curious story. He said he was a Mississippian, and came to Memphis a year ago to engage in business. He had $5,000 or $4,000, most of which he invested in a feed store. The business prospered, but he got poorer instead of richer. The reason was that he hungered too constantly for the seductive jack-pot, and the cards didn't come his way. His taste was gratified in a gambling house kept by S. M. Ormsby, who made one in a quet game that invariably left the feed merchant as game that invariably left the feed merchant as Rosensteel, a prominent and wearthy farmer, two miles west of here. LATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

-The Pope has sent to Miss Caldwell a valuable present and an autograph letter congratuating her upon her coming marriage to Prince Murat.

—At the launching of a Greek iron-clad at Havre M. Delyannis, the Greek Minister, was emphatic in his references to the increased friendship between France and Greece.

—Henry Horwitz. a New York diamond broker, committed suicide yesterday by shoot-ing himself in the right temple with a pistol of small caliber, while in his office on the third floor of No. 17 Maiden Lane.

—A letter from Chairman Cooley, of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, received from his home at Ann Arbor, Mich., states that he is steadily recovering from his late illness, and that he expects within a short time to return to his official duties at Washington.

The spread of diphtheria and scarlet fever at Lawrence, Mass., has become so alarming that in all the Catholic churches the priests Sunday warned the people not to visit from house to house any more than was necessary. It is stated that no funerals of the victims of these diseases will be allowed from the churches.

—Caleb Dinsmore, aged 75, committed suicide at Claremont, N. H., yesterday by placing the muzzle of a gun to one of his eyes and firing the gun with a cane. He left a note saying that he must soon die from cancer, and preferred not to suffer. He had made arrangements for his funeral, even to laying out a suit of clothes in which he wanted to be buried.

of clothes in which he wanted to be buried.

/ —Joseph Hoffman, a burglar, attempted to break into the house of William H. Kohns, in Mount Joy, Pa., early Sunday morning, and was shot by Kohns, the ball entering the left lung and inflicting, it is thought, a fatal injury. Hoffman is at the Lancaster hospital supposed to be dying. He is a native of Bavaria and been in this country seven years. Latterly he lived in Montgomery county, Pa.

—The Abilene, Kan., bank, owned by Mayor C. H. Debold and Colonel J. M. Fisher, suspended yesterday, creating great excitement, as it has been considered the strongest financial institution in Central Kansas. Deposits amount to $200,000, principally local. Rediscounts and individual loans swell liabilities to $400,000. The firm claims to own $600,000 worth of real estate and notes, and say they will pay in full if given time to realize.

—At Chicago Cleveland G. Arnold has been arrested by a postoffice inspector for a novel method of swindling. His scheme was simple but effective. He would watch the columns of the various marriage journals and when he saw an advertismment that suited him would write an advertise ment that suited him would write to the advertiser. His victims were always men. Arnold assumed the role of an innocent and gentle girl desirous of finding a husband. Inclosing a portrait of a handsome woman Arnold was sure to receive a reply. A correspondence would then be opened and in a very short time Arnold would receive a sum of money from his distant admirer, sent for the purpose of defraying the railroad expenses of the young girl on her trip to her admirer's home.

—From a canvass of the House of Representatives it is reported that Mr. Reed, of Maine, leads in the race for the speakership with 39 votes, while McKinley has 54 votes in sight, Cannon, of Illinois, being third with 31 votes; Burrows fourth with 16, and Henderson, of lows, with 12. This canvass is interesting as much for what it promises in the way of second choice as for what it shows for first choice. It will take 85 votes to name a speaker in the Republican caucus. McKinley is the second choice of 125 members, while Reed is second choice of only 85 including the 59 who are for him as a first choice. But if it comes to a second choice Cannon may get 76 votes, taking some from both Reed and McKinley.

—Not less than 75,000 Michigan farmers have some from both Reed and McKinley.

-Not less than 75,000 Michigan farmers have joined the Patrons of Husbandry since last May, and the number is increasing every week. They threaten to become the controlling power in the politics of the State, and then to spread over the entire country. The Patrons claim to have been forced into being by the monopolies and trusts, and they propose to organize a combination that will strike terror to the hearts of their enemies. At present the Patrons are devoting themselves exclusively to the merchants, and in every town where they have a foothold they enter into an iron-clad contract with one dealer in each line of trade to purchase only from him, exacting a pledge that they shall not be charged to exceed 12 per cent advance on wholesale prices.

Sick Headache

and few are entirely free. Its cause is indigestion and a sluggish liver, the cure for which is readily found in the use of Ayer's Pills.

"I have found that for sick headache, caused by a disordered condition of the stomach, Ayer's Pills are the most reliable remedy."—Samuel C. Bradburn, Worthington, Mass.

"After the use of Ayer's Pills for many years, in my practice and family, I am justified in saying that they are an excellent cathartic and liver medicine—sustaining all the claims made for them."

—W. A. Westfall, M. D., V. P. Austin & N. W. Railway Co., Burnet, Texas.

"Ayer's Pills are the best medicine known to me for regulating the bowels, and for all diseases caused by a disordered stomach and liver. I suffered for over three years from headache, indigestion, and constipation. I had no appetite and was weak and nervous years of the time. By using three boxes appente and was weak and hervous most of the time. By using three boxes of Ayer's Pills, and at the same time dieting myself, I was completely cured." — Philip Lockwood, Topeka, Kansas.

"I was troubled for years with indi-gestion, constipation, and headache. A few boxes of Ayer's Pills, used in small daily doses restrond many to the small daily doses, restored me to health. They are prompt and effective."—W. H. Strout, Meadville, Pa.
